

STANDING RULES

- 1: The chairperson of an event is responsible for in kind receipts to be deposited with the Treasurer or deposited marked Auxiliary in the AMVETS safe. In the absence of the Treasurer, the Secretary, or the President, any Officer shall maintain the check book and make such deposits as necessary.
- 2: Intoxication will not be permitted at any meetings. Any intoxicated member will be escorted out of the meeting.
- 3: Any member in good standing shall be reimbursed up to $30.00 for travel expense per car for SEC Meetings or State Convention. This will be paid only if all meetings are attended and proper receipts are turned in.
- 4: The member will pay the registration to attend SEC Meetings and Convention. The Auxiliary will reimburse the registration fee for those members who attend the SEC Meetings and Convention after proof of attendance at all meetings.
- 5: Past President, Elected or appointed Officers and Members in good standing who attend SEC and Convention shall be reimbursed one (1) night stay at the Host Hotel if all meetings are attended and proper receipts are turned in, providing the funds are available in the Auxiliary.

All meetings:

- Saturday: Official Business Session; Local Officers Training; Questions and Answers; SEC Council Meeting; Presidents Council Meeting; Training or Meetings pertaining to the Auxiliary.
- Sunday: General Business Session.

- 6: President, 1st Vice, Secretary and Treasurer will be reimbursed for supplies with proper receipts turned in with approval from the membership.
- 7: Americanism fund may be used for postage or goodies for troops with proper receipts turned in.
- 8: The President, 1st Vice or Treasurer CAN NOT work as bartender or work behind the bar.

Revised: April 4, 2022